

DNUG

12-Oct-2009
Boston Room
Nantucket Room

08:30 am	Arrival
08:45 am	Welcome to the Executive Briefing Center
09:00 am	Lotus Strategy Update Understanding IBM Collaboration' Strategy. What is the future of collaboration; What makes the Lotus collaboration strategy key; understanding its leadership over other collaboration solutions from companies like Microsoft Discuss collaboration in the context of our messaging solution as well as real-time collaboration. Specific product and real-world examples	Brent A. Peters Vice President - Lotus Software Development - Notes/Domino/DWA/Expeditor products
10:00 am	Break
10:15 am	Notes Domino DWA Understanding of IBM's Messaging and Collaboration core application. This session will provide an overview of the Notes and Domino applications as well as a look at ways of accessing the messaging infrastructure from a lighter client application like Domino Web Access.	Margaret Rora Program Director, Lotus Connections James Marsden Program Director - Notes Client Adoption Jeff Eisen Lotus Notes Chief Architect, IBM Distinguished Engineer
12:15 pm	Lunch
01:15 pm	Lotus Connections Introduction to Lotus Connections. This session will take a detailed look at what Social Networking is. What does it mean to have Activities, Blogs. How can tagging information to a knowledge expert make finding information and resources easier. Understanding the direction of social	Suzanne Minassian Product Manager - Lotus Connections software within a business environment as well as IBM's strategy for leadership with Social Software.

02:15 pm	Lotus Sametime Understand Sametime's role in IBM's overall Collaboration Strategy. Understanding Sametime's leadership position in the marketplace. Understand the business value of the enhancement to Sametime 8.0. Understanding of IBM's strategy going forward with regards to Unified Communication and Collaboration.	Phillip Buckellew Director, Lotus Sametime Development
03:15 pm	Break
03:30 pm	Lotus Quickr Update	Marc Pagnier Product Manager, Team Collaboration
04:30 pm	Lotus Alloy Update	John Banks-Binici Program Director, IBM Lotus Notes Java Client Framework and Infrastructure
05:30 pm	Day 1 Summary. Departure

DNUG
 13-Oct-2009
 Boston Room
 Nantucket Room

08:45 am	Arrival/Day 2 Agenda Review
09:00 am	Lotus Live	Dave Durazzano Sr. Technical Product Manager - LotusLive Engage
10:00 am	Lotus Symphony Update Review of IBM's open standards based productivity tool. Show how Symphony can take the places of a per license model for the majority of the end users needs.	Jeanette Barlow Collaboration Offering Manager
11:00 am	Break
11:15 am	Designer/Composite Apps AppDEV XPages, LotusScript, Java, Rich Client,	Maureen Leland STSM, Domino Designer Lead Architect Philippe Riand STSM, Domino XPages/Java Architect Phillipe Loher Dev Mgr - Domino Designer & Domino Client-Services
12:15 pm	Lunch
01:15 pm	Notes Futures This session will cover a look at the future of the Notes client. What will the strategy being for the Notes client going into 2009 and beyond	Sandesh Bhat Director, Software Development - WPLC, IBM Software Group Jeff Eisen Lotus Notes Chief Architect, IBM Distinguished Engineer John Lance Product Designer for Calendar and Scheduling

02:15 pm	Portal and Mashups A look at Websphere portal and the strategy going forward. A briefing demonstration of mashups and how to enhance the portal experience at the glass	Don Jones Chief Programmer (US), WebSphere Portal
03:15 pm	Break
03:30 pm	Expeditior/Sharepoint integration
04:30 pm	DNUG Presentation to IBM Developers	DNUG Members

DNUG

14-Oct-2009

Boston Room

Nantucket Room

(more information for this day on site!)

08:00 am	Arrival at IBM Research Cambridge
08:15 am	IBM Research Update	David Millen Research scientist
09:15 am	IBM Research Lab Tour	David Millen Research scientist
11:15 am	Departure	